IMPORT BEEF TRADE (Australia and New Zealand) FRI, Jan 30, 2014
Compared to Last Week: Market activity was slow to moderate. Prices were mostly firm to 1.00 higher. Harsh weather conditions across most the U.S. continued to slow trading. Australian slaughter numbers were at record levels for January. The domestic lean market remained strong. Tight cow supplies and strong demand continued to support prices.

NATIONAL CARLOT MEAT TRADE REVIEW
Week Ending: Thursday, Jan 30, 2014

CARCASS PRICE EQUIVALENT INDEX VALUES

The carcass price equivalent index value of a Choice 600-900 lbs carcass was 3.82 lower at 217.54; Select 600-900 lbs carcass was 3.38 lower at 215.01 compared to last Friday.

FABRICATED BOXED BEEF CUTS AND BEEF CUTOUT VALUE

For the week, Boxed beef cutout values were sharply lower on very light to light demand and light offerings. After climbing to record levels last week, Boxed beef cutout values have been coming down fairly fast. On Wednesday the change from the prior day on Choice was -3.99, the 3rd highest loss on record. The record is - 4.59 set 10/08/2008. The recently inflated chuck and round primals had the highest losses this week, while the loin primal remained steady. The Choice rib primal was steady while Select was firm on low volume. This week, the volume of Select and Choice cuts traded has been below 100 loads every day, this is an indication of buyer resistance to higher prices. The volume of cuts has been low in general in recent weeks and most notably on Select. So far this week there were only 115.52 loads of Select product reported; to put that into perspective, this is lower than the reported branded product of 116.65 loads. Last Friday there was only 16.61 loads of Select cuts reported, a new daily record low. Because of the reduced herd size, slaughter numbers continue to be below average leaving less product available in the pipeline. This has been the driving factor in the unseasonable up-turn in the boxed beef cutout values. Also, NAFTA and overseas exports are making up a higher percent of total production than they did a year ago further depleting domestic supplies. All Fed grinds have fallen sharply this week after reaching historic levels while blended grinds were steady. All grinds remain well above year ago levels however. Forward negotiated sales were light with a large consignment of Choice export style ribs being sold at a price higher than the spot market. Beef trimmings were lower on light to moderate demand and offerings.

For the week: Select and Choice rib primal steady to 3.31 higher; Select and Choice chuck primal 12.75 to 14.00 lower; Select and Choice round primal 12.75 to 13.75 lower; Select loin primal steady to 1.75 higher; Beef trimmings were 1.66 lower. Fed cattle grinds were 23.00 to 37.00 lower while blended grinds were mostly 5.00 lower.

Composite of Boxed Beef Cutout Values: Choice 600/900# carcasses down 6.51 at 230.75 Select 600/900# carcasses down 6.46 at 229.79 when compared to last Friday.

COW AND BULL CARCASS, BONELESS PROCESSING BEEF, CUTTER COW CUTOUT

Lean boneless processing beef was generally steady while trimmings were mixed. Demand was moderate for moderate offerings. Trading activity was slow to moderate. Light kills and strong demand for the available supplies continued to support prices but winter storms and inclement weather slowed trading. Several packers were forced to cancel shifts or limit their hours of operation due to the weather conditions.

Market activity on imports was slow to moderate. Prices were mostly firm to 1.00 higher. Harsh weather conditions across most the U.S. continued to slow trading. Australian slaughter numbers were at record levels for January. The domestic lean market remained strong. Tight cow supplies and strong demand continued to support prices.

Cutter cow cutout values were mostly steady. Chuck, round and rib items were mixed while chuck and flank cuts closed mostly lower. 100% lean items were mixed.

Lean boneless beef 92-94% generally steady; 90% lean generally steady; 85% mostly steady; 81% 1.00 to 2.00 lower; 75% firm to 1.00 higher; 65% mostly 4.00 to 5.00 lower; Other lean percentages were not fully established. 100% lean combo items were mixed. Cutter cow carcass gross cutout value for Thursday, January 30, 2014 was estimated at $175.03 per cwt, 0.72 lower compared to last Friday.

BY-PRODUCTS: VARIETY MEATS, TALLOW, PROTEINS, AND HIDES

Mother Nature wreaked havoc across the United States, starting with sub- zero temperatures in the Midwest followed by ice and snow in the Southeast. These winter conditions left trucks stranded across the country, limiting the moving of both live animals to harvest facilities and the resulting meat to potential buyers. Trading on beef varieties was non-existent while pork varieties showed limited interest in domestic cheeks and export edible ears.

Market activity on tallow and greases was slow this week. Chicago packer bleachable tallow and choice white grease finished steady. Soap and chemical demand and offerings were light to moderate. Light chemical demand and mounting supplies pressured prices lower on Chicago edible tallow. Gulf packer tallow closed lower on light export demand. Central choice white and yellow grease ended generally steady. Feed fat and biofuel demand was light for light offerings.

Trading on protein feed supplements was slow to moderate this week. Meat and bone meal markets found a plateau of stability ending the price decline of recent weeks. Central ruminant finished steady to slightly lower while the Panhandle product ended steady to higher. The pork meat and bone meal closed steady to slightly lower. Demand and offerings were light to moderate. Central blood meal ended slightly lower, while pork blood meal finished steady. Price resistance is showing up, but the limited offerings have kept prices generally steady. Dairy demand remains good.

Major packer hides experienced slow trading this week. The Chinese Lunar New Year holidays kept most of the Asian buyers out of the market. Offerings were light. In light tests, Butt Branded Steers and Branded Steers finished slightly lower. The market remains firm; however tanner price resistance continues.

Beef Variety Meats: No trades reported.
Pork Variety Meats: Cheeks 2.00-4.00 higher; Ears, edible export steady.

Central choice white grease steady to weak; Central yellow grease steady; Chicago packer bleachable tallow steady; Chicago choice white grease steady; Central meat and bone meal steady to 10.00 lower; Panhandle meat and bone meal steady to 25.00 higher; pork meat and bone meal steady to 5.00 lower; Central blood meal 25.00 lower; pork blood meal steady; Butt Branded Steer hides 1.50 lower; Branded Steer hides 2.00 lower.

The average value of hide and offal for the four days ending January 30, 2014, was estimated at 14.83 per cwt., down 0.11 from last week and up 1.10 from last year.

NORTHEAST COAST AND NORTH CENTRAL VEAL CARCASS, CUTS

Compared to last week: Non packer owned calves steady to firm, packer owned calves were steady to higher. Demand and offerings light to moderate. Harvest numbers were 6.4 percent lower compared to last week's total. Dressed weights were up 6.8 pounds in the Northeast, down 3.8 pounds.

Compared to last week: Special fed veal cut prices were firm on racks and leg cuts all other items were steady on light to moderate demand and offerings.

LAMB: CARCASS & PELTS

Carcass lamb sales for the week were firm to higher, as of 1/30/2014: 45# and down weight carcasses 54.67 higher; 45-55# carcasses 8.10 higher; 55-65# carcasses 4.77 higher; 65-85# carcasses were 0.73 to 1.55 higher; 85# and heavier carcasses were 0.05 higher. The estimated National Lamb Carcass Cutout Report was 4.81 lower compared to last week at 327.51.

Pelt activity this week compared to last report: Pelt prices were mostly steady. Trading has become somewhat quiet this week as customers are taking inventory of what they have on hand and are in the process of planning for the future this week.
