URGENT – RESER'S FINE FOODS WITHDRAWAL of COOKED, DICED and SLICED POTATOES – USA and CANADA (MUA)
IMMEDIATE ACTION NECESSARY

Please be aware that receipt of this communication is NOT confirmation that you have received affected product. This correspondence has been distributed as a courtesy to Sysco customer corporate contacts as a notification of a general recall/withdrawal/hold situation. If the unit locations received affected product, they will be contacted by the Sysco Operating Company that services them. If any one of your locations purchased this item(s), regardless of distributor, it is recommended that you check your inventory for affected product.

Sysco Quality Assurance received notification that RESER'S FINE FOODS is conducting a voluntary product WITHDRAWAL of Classic Cooked, Diced and Sliced Potato products. The products in question were produced at Plant #23, Reser's Deer Creek Potato Plant in Topeka, KS.

The reason for the WITHDRAWAL is bloating. The bags are swelling inside the cases. There is not a food safety issue.
