URGENT – RILEY'S RECALL of LONG STALK CELERY (MUA)
IMMEDIATE ACTION NECESSARY

Please be aware that receipt of this communication is NOT confirmation that you have received affected product. This correspondence has been distributed as a courtesy to Sysco customer corporate contacts as a notification of a general recall/withdrawal/hold situation. If the unit locations received affected product, they will be contacted by the Sysco Operating Company that services them. If any one of your locations purchased this item(s), regardless of distributor, it is recommended that you check your inventory for affected product.

THIS PRODUCT IS A REPORTABLE FOOD.

Sysco Quality Assurance received notification that Riley's is conducting a voluntary product RECALL of long stalk celery from C&E Farms Inc. of Salinas, CA. FreshPoint locations received the affected product from Riley's.

This recall is being initiated following the discovery of E. coli 0157:H7 by the FDA in product containing processed celery that may have originated from one of C&E contract growers.
